Chapter 7

APPLICATION FOR ENTRY OF:
(I) ORDER COMPELLING EXAMINATION AND AUTHORIZING
APPREHENSION OF VAHE TASHJIAN IN FURTHERANCE THEREOF, PURSUANT TO FEDERAL RULE OF BANKRUPTCY PROCEDURE 2005; AND
(II) ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE RE
CONTEMPT FOR FAILURE TO TURN OVER RECORDS AND ATTEND
MEETINGS OF CREDITORS;
DECLARATION OF RICHARD
MARSHACK IN SUPPORT THEREOF

[No Hearing Required]

1 Richard Marshack (the “Trustee”), the chapter 7 trustee in the above-referenced bankruptcy
2 case (the “Bankruptcy Case”) of Dutchints Development, LLC (the “Debtor”), filed under chapter 7 3 of title 11 of the United States Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”),<sup>1</sup> hereby submits this application (the 4 “Application”) for entry of an order substantially in the forms attached hereto as Exhibit A and 5 Exhibit B (the “Proposed Orders”): (i) compelling the Debtor’s representative, Vahe Tashjian (“Mr.
6 Tashjian”), pursuant to Rule 2005 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy 7 Rules”), (a) to attend a continued meeting of creditors as the Debtor’s person most knowledgeable (the 8 “Examination”) on such date to be noticed by the Trustee, and (b) authorizing the United States 9 Marshals Service to take Mr. Tashjian into custody to effectuate the foregoing; and, (ii) requiring the 10 Debtor and Mr. Tashjian to show cause why they should not be held in contempt for noncompliance 11 with the the Court’s Order Granting Interim Trustee’s Ex Parte Motion to Compel Turnover and 12 Compliance with 11 U.S.C. § 521 [Docket No. 165] (the “Turnover Order”) and repeated failure to 13 appear at three previous § 341(a) meetings of creditors. In support of this Application, the Trustee 14 refers to the accompanying Declaration of Richard Marshack (the “Marshack Declaration”) and 15 respectfully states as follows:

16 I.

17 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

18 A. General Background

19 On September 29, 2021, the Debtor filed a voluntary petition [Docket No. 1] (the “Petition”) 20 for relief under chapter 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. On December 20, 2021, the Office of the United 21 States Trustee appointed [Docket No. 83] an official committee of unsecured creditors (the 22 “Committee”).

23 On February 11, 2022, the Court entered an order [Docket No. 127] converting the Bankruptcy
24 Case to a case under chapter 7 of the Bankruptcy Code. On April 28, 2022, the Court entered an order 25 [Docket No. 183] confirming the Trustee as the permanent chapter 7 trustee in this Bankruptcy Case.

26
27
28 <sup>1</sup> Unless otherwise set forth herein, all references to “Section” and “§” are to a section of the Bankruptcy Code.

1 B. The Debtor Repeatedly Admitted That Mr. Tashjian Is the Debtor's Sole Responsible 2 Individual.

3 The Debtor has repeatedly asserted in sworn filings before this Court that Mr. Tashjian is the 4 Debtor's responsible individual. Mr. Tashjian initially signed the Petition in his capacity as the 5 Debtor's "Managing Director." See Petition, at 5. Mr. Tashjian later signed further bankruptcy 6 disclosures on behalf of the Debtor in the same capacity. See, e.g., Docket Nos. 39 (Schedules and 7 SOFA), 66 (Amended Schedules), 147 (Amended Schedules). The Debtor's Statement of Financial 8 Affairs [Docket No. 39] (the "SOFA") similarly identifies Mr. Tashjian as the 100% membership 9 interest holder in the Debtor through two separate entities described as: (i) "T Fund LLC % Vahe 10 Tashjian" (a 0.01% membership interest holder); and (ii) "Vahe S. Tashjian 2018 Living Trust Attn: 11 Vahe S. Tashjian, Trustee" (a 99.99% membership interest holder). See SOFA, at ECF p. 30 (List of 12 Equity Security Holders); see also Docket No. 66, at ECF p. 16 (amended list of equity security holders 13 reflecting the same); id., at ECF p. 17 (corporate ownership statement).

14 Moreover, on October 25, 2021, the Debtor filed the Application to Approve Designation of 15 Responsible Individual Pursuant to B.L.R. 4002-1 [Docket No. 34] (the "Responsible Individual 16 Application"). As set forth more fully in the Responsible Individual Application, the Debtor proposed 17 to appoint Mr. Tashjian, in his capacity as the Debtor's managing member, "as the natural person to 18 be responsible for the duties and obligations of the Debtor." Responsible Indiv. Appl. at 1. On October 19 25, 2021, the Court entered the order [Docket No. 35] ("Responsible Individual Order") approving the 20 application and appointing Mr. Tashjian as the Debtor's responsible individual.

21 C. Mr. Tashjian Did Not Produce A Single Record by the Deadline Set Forth in the 22 Turnover Order and Informed Debtor's Counsel That He Does Not Intend to Comply 23 With the Turnover Order.

24 On April 13, 2022, Kari Bowyer, in her capacity as interim chapter 7 trustee of the Bankruptcy 25 Case (the "Interim Trustee"), filed the Interim Trustee's Ex Parte Motion to Compel Turnover and 26 Compliance with 11 U.S.C. § 521 [Docket No. 162] (the "Turnover Motion"). As set forth more fully 27 in the Turnover Motion, the Interim Trustee represented that "the Debtor currently has in its possession 28 certain financial and other business records of the Debtor" subject to turnover, pursuant to § 521 (the

1 “Records”). On April 15, 2022, the Court entered the Turnover Order, which, among other things, 2 granted the Turnover Motion, ordered Mr. Tashjian to produce the Records to the Interim Trustee, and 3 required that turnover of the Records occur not later than April 29, 2022. See Turnover Order at 2-3.

4 On May 2, 2022, the Debtor’s counsel filed the Declaration of Counsel re Status Of 5 Compliance With Order Granting Interim Trustees Ex Parte Motion to Compel Turnover [Docket 6 No.185] (the “Turnover Declaration”). As set forth in the Turnover Declaration, “[o]n April 12, Mr.
7 Tashjian advised [counsel] that he will not be providing anything further at this time” in response to 8 the Turnover Order and that “[n]o documents or further information has been provided by Mr. Tashjian 9 to date” responsive to the Turnover Order. Turnover Decl., ¶¶ 5, 7. As of the date of this Application, 10 the Trustee has not received any of the Records that Mr. Tashjian was ordered to produce not later 11 than April 29, 2022. See Marshack Decl., ¶ 4.

12 D. Mr. Tashjian Has Failed to Appear on Behalf of the Debtor at Three Recent Continued
13 § 341(a) Meetings of Creditors.

14 On September 29, 2021, the Court entered the Order and Notice of Chapter 11 Status
15 Conference [Docket No. 6] (the “Chapter 11 Order”). As set forth more fully in the Chapter 11 Order, 16 the Court ordered that, among other things, the “failure of the debtor(s) to appear at the § 341(a) 17 meeting of creditors . . . may result in a monetary sanction, the appointment of a Chapter 11 trustee, 18 or the dismissal or conversion of this case without further notice or hearing.” Chapter 11 Order at 2 19 (emphasis added). On February 11, 2022, following the conversion of the Bankruptcy Case to chapter 20 7, the Court issued the Notice of Chapter 7 Bankruptcy Case – Proof of Claim Deadline Set [Docket 21 No. 128], which provides, among other things, that “Debtors must attend the meeting [of creditors] to 22 be questioned under oath.” Docket No. 18 at 2. Nevertheless, Mr. Tashjian has failed to appear on 23 behalf of the Debtor at three recent § 341(a) meetings of creditors. Since the conversion of the 24 Bankruptcy Case to chapter 7, Mr. Tashjian has failed to appear at continued meetings of creditors on 25 April 26, 2022, May 12, 2022, and May 16, 2022. See Docket No. 188 (reflecting the absences of the 26 Debtor and Mr. Tashjian and continuing § 341(a) meetings); Apr. 26, 2022 Docket Entry (same); see 27 also Marshack Decl., ¶ 3.

1 II.

2 ARGUMENT

3 A. The Court Should Enter an Order Compelling Mr. Tashjian to Attend the Examination
4 and Authorizing His Apprehension for Such Purpose, Pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 5 2005.

6 Bankruptcy Rule 2005(a) provides as follows:

7 On motion of any party in interest supported by an affidavit alleging 8 (1) that the examination of the debtor is necessary for the proper 9 administration of the estate and that there is reasonable cause to believe 10 that the debtor is about to leave or has left the debtor's residence or 11 principal place of business to avoid examination, or (2) that the debtor 12 has evaded service of a subpoena or of an order to attend for 13 examination, or (3) that the debtor has willfully disobeyed a subpoena 14 or order to attend for examination, duly served, the court may issue to 15 the marshal, or some other officer authorized by law, an order directing 16 the officer to bring the debtor before the court without unnecessary 17 delay. If, after hearing, the court finds the allegations to be true, the court 18 shall thereupon cause the debtor to be examined forthwith. If necessary, 19 the court shall fix conditions for further examination and for the debtor's 20 obedience to all orders made in reference thereto.

21 FED. R. BANKR. P. 2005(a).<sup>2</sup> Bankruptcy Rule 2005 applies to a debtor's failure to attend a meeting
22 of creditors. See, e.g., In re Skandis, 621 B.R. 218, 226-227 (Bankr. W.D. Mich. 2020); 11 U.S.C. § 23 343 (referring to the meeting of creditors as an "examination" and providing that "[t]he debtor shall 24 appear and submit to examination under oath at the meeting of creditors").

25 The facts of the Bankruptcy Case easily support entry of an order under Bankruptcy Rule 2005.
26 As set forth more fully in the record of the Bankruptcy Case and the Marshack Declaration, Mr.
27 Tashjian is the Debtor's sole individual representative. See Marshack Decl., ¶ 3; SOFA, at ECF p. 30; 28 Docket No. 66, at ECF p. 16; id., at ECF p. 17. As such, his participation at the meetings of creditors ordered by the Court and mandated, pursuant to § 343, is necessary to the administration of the

25 <sup>2</sup> Bankruptcy Rule 2005 only requires a motion for imposition of apprehension sanctions. Bankruptcy 26 Rule 9014 (which also governs contempt) provides that the Debtor and Mr. Tashjian are entitled to 27 "reasonable notice and opportunity for hearing," but no hearing is required. Accordingly, the Trustee 28 submits that relief requested under Bankruptcy Rule 2005 may be sought by Application without the need for a hearing. In the alternative, as set forth below, the Trustee submits that the issuance of an order to show cause, and any hearing thereon, prior to imposition of contempt sanctions will provide sufficient notice.

1 Debtor's estate because no other individual possesses information concerning the Debtor's assets and 2 liabilities. See id. Further, there is reasonable cause to believe that Mr. Tashjian has intentionally 3 avoided examination in light of his stated intention to ignore related discovery ordered in the Turnover 4 Order, as set forth more fully in the Turnover Declaration. See Turnover Decl., ¶¶ 5, 7. Moreover, 5 Mr. Tashjian as willfully disobeyed the Court's Chapter 11 Order by failing to attend at least three 6 § 341(a) creditors meetings. See Chapter 11 Order at 2, Turnover Order at 2-3, Turnover Decl., ¶¶ 5, 7 7. See Marshack Decl., ¶ 4. Accordingly, cause exists to enter an order, pursuant to Bankruptcy Rule 8 2005(a)(1) and (3), directing the United States Marshal Service to apprehend Mr. Tashjian and compel 9 Mr. Tashjian to attend a continued § 341(a) meeting of creditors.

10 B. Alternatively, the Court Should Enter an Order to Show Cause Why Mr. Tashjian
11 Should Not Be Held in Contempt for Violating the Turnover Order and Failing to Attend
12 Meetings of Creditors.

13 The Court has inherent authority to compel compliance with its own orders following a finding 14 of civil contempt. Section 105(a) provides that "[t]he court may issue any order, process, or judgment 15 that is necessary or appropriate to carry out the provisions of" the Bankruptcy Code and may take "any 16 action or mak[e] any determination necessary or appropriate to enforce or implement court orders or 17 rules, or to prevent abuse of process." 11 U.S.C. § 105(a). The Court's inherent authority under § 18 105(a) includes authority to order the remedy of civil contempt. See In re Dyer, 322 F.3d 1178, 1189-19 1190 (9th Cir. 2003) ("Although civil contempt sanctions under § 105(a) has a checked past in our 20 circuit, the recent precedent makes clear that this remedy is available."). "The standard for finding a 21 party in civil contempt is well settled: The moving party has the burden of showing by clear and 22 convincing evidence that the contemnors violated a specific and definite order of the court." In re 23 Bennett, 298 F.3d 1059, 1069 (9th Cir. 2002). Upon satisfying the movant's initial burden, "[t]he 24 burden then shifts to the contemnors to demonstrate why they were unable to comply." Id. The 25 Bankruptcy Rules do not add further to the contempt requirements—Bankruptcy Rule 9020 provides 26 only that contempt proceedings must comply with the notice and hearing requirements set forth in 27 Bankruptcy Rule 9014. See FED. R. BANKR. P. 9020.

1 The Trustee easily satisfies his burden to demonstrate that issuance of an order to show cause
2 concerning contempt (and contempt sanctions themselves) is proper. As set forth above, Mr. Tashjian
3 has failed to appear at three successive meetings of creditors. See Docket No. 188; Apr. 26, 2022 4 Docket Entry; see also Marshack Decl., ¶ 3. Mr. Tashjian had ample notice of his obligations to 5 participate in the meeting of creditors—the Court ordered the Debtor’s participate in in the Chapter 6 11 Order and provided notice of the Debtor’s continued obligation to do so following conversion, see 7 Docket No. 128. Further, Mr. Tashjian undertook the responsibility to serve as the Debtor’s 8 responsible person and was ordered to serve in that capacity “to be responsible for the duties of the 9 Debtor,” including the statutory duty to appear for § 341(a) examinations. See Responsible Individual 10 Order at 2; see also 11 U.S.C. § 343. Moreover, Mr. Tashjian was present for the March 25, 2022 11 meeting of creditors, at which the Interim Trustee continued the meeting of creditors to April 26, 2022.
12 See Mar. 25, 2022 Docket Entry. Accordingly, his repeated absences from April 26, 2022 to date are 13 repeated violations of the specific and definite provisions of the Court’s Chapter 11 Order and 14 Responsible Individual Order, as well as his statutory obligation under § 343.

15 Mr. Tashjian has also violated the specific and definite provisions of the Turnover Order. Mr.
16 Tashjian has not turned over to the Trustee a single Record as of the date of this Application, 17 notwithstanding the specific provisions of the Turnover Order requiring that he turn over all Records 18 not later than April 29, 2022. See Marshack Decl., ¶ 4; Turnover Order at 2-3. Worse yet, Mr. Tashjian 19 informed Debtor’s counsel that he does not intend to comply with the Turnover Order despite his 20 specific knowledge of its provisions. See Turnover Decl., ¶¶ 5, 7. Accordingly, the Court should issue 21 an order to show cause why Mr. Tashjian should not be held in contempt and subject to monetary and 22 incarceration sanctions to compel his compliance with the meetings of creditors and the terms of the 23 Turnover Order.

24 III.

25 CONCLUSION

26 Based on the foregoing, the Trustee respectfully requests that the Court enter the Proposed 27 Orders: (i) granting the Application; (ii) compelling the Debtor’s representative, Vahe Tashjian (“Mr.
28 Tashjian”), pursuant to Rule 2005 of the Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (the “Bankruptcy

1 Rules”), (a) to attend the Examination on such date to be noticed by the Trustee, and (b) directing the 2 United States Marshals Service to take Mr. Tashjian into custody to effectuate the foregoing; (iii) 3 requiring the Debtor and Mr. Tashjian to show cause why they should not be held in contempt for 4 noncompliance with the Turnover Order and failure to appear at two previous § 341(a) meetings of 5 creditors; and (iv) granting the Trustee such other and further relief as is just and appropriate under 6 the circumstances.
